And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and, immediately after such Election made and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers, the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Thirteenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, in the Sixteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

The following Address of the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty by John Freeman, Esq; the High Sheriff; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Mr. Freeman had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign

DEIGN to accept this humble Address of your dutiful Subjects, the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, as an Assurance of their firm and inviolable Allegiance and Loyalty, at a Time when Rebellion has erected her Standard in the distant Provinces of your Empire.

With Affection we regard your Person, with Gratitude we acknowledge the Justice and Benignity of your mild and merciful Government; — with Detestation we abhor the Professionsof Attachment to the former, by those who resist your Authority, and oppose your Laws.

To confirm the Liberties of Britain by the Establishment of the Legislative Powers of Parliament, our Ancestors sacrificed their Blood; and to secure those Liberties to their Posterity, transferred the Succession to the Crown to your Majesty's Family. — To defend and maintain those Powers, we look up to your Majesty as the great Guardian of our Constitution; and permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall chearfully concur in every Support which our Duty may call for, or our Abilities can furnish, towards the Success of your Majesty's Arms over your rebellious Subjects; at the same Time most ardently wishing, that your Majesty's gracious Offers of Mercy, together with the firm Support of your dutiful and loyal Subjects, may influence the Hearts of the Rebellious to return to their Duty and Allegiance; and that your whole People reunited may, with us, be convinced, that to be a British Subject, with all its Consequences, is to be the freest Member of any Civil Society in the World.

And we pray to God, that your Majesty and your Progeny may long reign over these Realms in undisturbed Peace and undiminished Splendor.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County for Sutherland, ſenſible that, under your mild and equitable Adminiſtration, we, among other Bleſſings, enjoy every Species of Liberty compatible with the Exiſtence of Society, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that none can hold in greater Deteſtation and Abhorrence than we do, the unnatural Behaviour of your Subjects in America, who have raiſed the unprovoked Standard of Rebellion againſt your gracious Government, and the legal Authority of Parliament. With the deepeſt Concern we ſee, that their Obſtinacy and Contempt of the Lenity exerciſed towards them, by your Majeſty's Humanity and Averſion to Bloodſhed, render the moſt vigorous Meaſures abſolutely neceſſary for reducing their rebellious Spirit; and we aſſure your Majeſty that we, and the other Inhabitants of this moſt loyal County, are all ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty in all ſuch Meaſures as the Wiſdom of your Parliament may find neceſſary for quelling this Rebellion, and for ſecuring and preſerving the juſt and Conſtitutional Rights of Great Britain over all her Colonies.

By Order, and in Preſence of the Meeting,

Dornoch, Nov. 22, 1775. James Sutherland, P.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Banff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Banff, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to teſtify our Diſapprobation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of your Majeſty's Colonies in America.

We admire your Majeſty's Moderation and Temper, which, while your Majeſty exerts that firm and conſtitutional Spirit to ſubdue, yet ſtill holds forth the Benevolence to pardon thoſe who return to Duty.

We moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ſupport your Majeſty, to the utmoſt of our Power, in maintaining the Authority of the Legiſlature over every Part of the Britiſh Dominions.

We pray God to direct your Majeſty's Councils and Meaſures, and that your Majeſty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Elgin, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Arthur Duff, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Elgin.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Elgin, ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and conſtitutional Government, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to teſtify our Abhorrence horrence of that avowed Rebellion which exists in the Colonies in America.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will support your Majesty, to the utmost of our Power, in maintaining the Dignity of your Crown, and the Authority of the Legislature over every Part of the British Dominions.

We pray God to return the Colonies to a Sense of their Duty and Allegiance, and that your Majesty may reign long to diffuse the Blessings of Liberty and Peace to a grateful, free, and united People.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the City of Elgin, North Britain, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Staates Long Morris, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the City of Elgin, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your antient City of Elgin, beg Leave, upon this Occasion, to approach your Throne, and humbly to assure your Majesty of our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with a grateful Sense of the many valuable Blessings and Privileges we enjoy, in common with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, under your Majesty's wise and mild Administration, we should think ourselves greatly wanting in that Respect, Duty, and Allegiance, we owe to the best of Kings, if we omitted this Opportunity of testifying our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the unnatural and ungrateful Rebellion that presently exists in some of your Majesty's Colonies in America; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support all such Measures, as shall be judged necessary by your Majesty and Parliament, to put a speedy End to this unprovoked Rebellion, which, we apprehend, has been greatly encouraged and abetted by the seditious Practices of a turbulent and discontented Faction at Home. It is our sincere and ardent Prayer to the Supreme Disposer of all Things, that the Distractions amongst your misguided and deluded American Subjects may subside; that Peace, good Order, and a just and Constitutional Dependance upon the Mother Country, may again be restored, without the further Effusion of Human Blood; and that your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign over a free, happy, and united People.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts, of the Burgh of Lanark, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Cockburn, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts, of the Burgh of Lanark, in Common-Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH affectionate Hearts, full of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and impressed in the most sensible Manner with the Blessings that flow from your mild and auspicious Reign, permit us, at this important Crisis, to express our Abhorrence of that rebellious Spirit which has prompted your deluded Subjects in America to take Arms in Opposition to your Majesty's Government, and to the Legal Authority of Parliament.

We have with the greatest Concern beheld the many unjust Attempts which have been made to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Reign. We sincerely wish that our unhappy and deluded Fellow-Subjects in America may see their Error, and return to their Duty; but if they shall continue in their unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion, with our Lives and Fortunes we will assert the Supremacy of your Majesty and Parliament over every Part of the British Empire; and hope the Sons of Sedition may be taught, that the same Arm which was lately stretched out for their Defence and Security, and which drove all their Enemies far from their Confines, can with equal Ease chastise ungrateful and rebellious Subjects. Happy that the Rod is in the most mild and merciful Hand, in the Hand of the Father and the Friend of his People.

We pray that God Almighty, for these Purposes, may bless your Majesty's Councils with Wisdom, grant Success to your Arms, restore Peace and Tranquillity to all your Subjects, and spare your Majesty long to reign with Honour and Glory over a happy, a free, and united People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Lanark, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five Years, by Robert Bell, Provost.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Kincardine, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Kincardine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen of the County of Kincardine, in General Meeting assembled, esteem it our Duty on the present Occasion to express, with the highest Sense of Gratitude, the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's free and lenient Government; and to avow our firm and unalterable Resolution to support, by every Exertion of our Powers, the Measures adopted by your Majesty and the Parliament of Great Britain, for suppressing the Rebellion now subsisting in your Majesty's Colonies in America.

With the most ardent Prayers for your Majesty's Happiness, and the long Continuance of your Reign over a free and a grateful People, we most sincerely wish for the speedy Success of your Majesty's Endeavours to reduce the Colonies to a just Subordination to the Legislative Powers of Great Britain, and due Obedience to your Majesty's Government.

Signed, in Name of the General Meeting, and by their Appointment, at Stonhaven, the 29th Day of November, 1775 Years,

R. Barclay, Præses.

The following Address of the Ministers and Presbytery of Irvine has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Loudoun, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, met here this Day, beg Leave to approach your Throne; deeply sensible of the many Blessings both of a Sacred and Civil Nature, which we enjoy under your Majesty's equitable and mild Administration.

We think ourselves called upon by the present Circumstances of Public Affairs to declare unanimously our Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and our Abhorrence of that Spirit of Licentiousness and Rebellion which prevails so extensively in your Majesty's Colonies.

We are happy in being able to assure your Majesty, that the numerous People under our Care have the same Sentiments of Loyalty with ourselves, detest that ungrateful and unnatural Rebellion, and are disposed to do every Thing in their Power to strengthen the Hands of Government, in taking the most vigorous Measures to put a speedy Stop to it, and to re-establish Peace and Harmony upon a solid and lasting Foundation.

That Almighty God may direct your Majesty's Councils, cils, and give Success to the Measures of Government for restoring Peace and bringing the rebellious Part of your American Subjects to a just Sense of the invaluable and peculiar Blessings that accrue to them from the happy Constitution of the British Empire, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Presbytery of Irvine, this Twenty-eighth Day of November, Seventeen hundred and seventy-five, by Henry Graham, Moderator.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Freeholders of the County of Orkney, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Dundas, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Stirling, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Freeholders of the County of Orkney, think it our indispensible Duty at this Time to approach your Throne, and to testify our Regard and Reverence for your Majesty's Person and Government, and for the established Constitution of the British Empire.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we view with Abhorrence the unnatural Rebellion which has broke forth among your Subjects in America, and the Anarchy and Confusion into which these once happy People have been so rashly hurried by the artful Designs of factious and desperate Men.—We earnestly hope that the Parliament, the Great Council of this Nation, will give your Majesty such Advice and Assistance, as will enable You not only effectually to crush this Civil War, but also to restore and establish in every Part of the British Dominions that Obedience and Regard to the Supreme Power of King and Parliament, which every good Subject must clearly perceive can alone continue and insure to them the innumerable Blessings they enjoy from our happy Constitution, and your Majesty's most lenient Government.

With unfeigned Zeal we assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times concur, with others of your faithful Subjects, in every Step which your Majesty's paternal Care and the Wisdom of Parliament shall deem necessary to be taken, for repressing the unlawful Violence and Confusion now existing in America, which is so contrary to the Spirit of true Liberty, and destructive and dangerous to the Peace and Happiness of this Empire.

Signed, in our Name and at our Appointment, by our Preses,

Patrick Græme, Preses.

Orkney, November 14, 1775.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Rutherglen, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Rutherglen, deeply impress with a Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, and to declare our Disapprobation and Abhorrence of the Rebellion now supported by some of your Majesty's deluded Subjects in North America, against their lawful Sovereign and the Constitution of the British Empire.

We sincerely wish, that the Measures adopted by your Majesty and Parliament may be vigorously prosecuted, for reducing your rebellious Subjects under a due Obedience to the Laws, and for establishing the Dependence of the Colonies on their Mother Country.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our sincere and hearty Resolution to support the Administration of your Majesty's Government.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council, this Twenty-ninth Day of November, Seventeen hundred and seventy-five Years.

James Fleming, Provost.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Heretors, Freeholders, and Clergy, of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable James Stuart Mackenzie, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Heretors, Freeholders, and Clergy of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, assembled at Dingwall, this 23d Day of November, 1775 Years.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

UNinfluenced by the artful Chicane of Party, unacquainted with the venal Prostitution of Faction, but firmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Government, we, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Heretors, Freeholders, and Clergy of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, though locally distant, presume to approach the Throne, at this most important and critical Period.

The impartial Administration of Justice, tempered with Mildness and Mercy, the equitable Measures pursued for the Good of the whole Empire, and the Protection we are blessed with in the Enjoyment of our Liberties, both Sacred and Civil, under your Majesty's Government, must distinguish your Majesty's Reign in the Annals of the British Constitution.

Free and happy as we are, it is therefore with an inexpressible Concern we behold many of our Fellow-Subjects in America, incited and supported by factious and designing Men at Home, violating all the sacred Ties of Cordiality and Commerce, which should subsist between the Mother Country and her Colonies, taking up the Arms of unnatural Rebellion, and actually engaged in Hostilities with the Parent who tenderly fostered and supported them with her Treasure and Blood.

We place the justest Reliance upon the Wisdom and Stedfastness of your Majesty's Councils, whereby we soon hope to see re-established the supreme Authority of the British Legislature over every Part and Dependency of its extensive Empire.

Since the lenient Measures and Moderation hitherto shewn have not brought back the deluded Sons of America to a Sense of their Duty, but call for stronger and coercive Measures, we therefore beg Leave, in the most respectful and dutiful Manner, to assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times, to the utmost of our Power, be ready to support your Majesty, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, as well as the Legislative Authority of these Realms, in Defence of our inestimable Constitution; and that, for these Ends, we shall have no Hesitation in convincing your rebellious and deluded Subjects in America, that with the same Chearfulness we so profusely spill'd our Blood in the last War, in defending them against their and our natural Enemies, we are now ready to shed it, if necessary, in bringing them back to a just Sense of their Duty and Allegiance to your Majesty, and their Subordination to the Mother Country: And we can assure your Majesty, that these are the Sentiments which prevail among all Ranks of People in these Northern Parts of your Majesty's Dominions.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Harry Munro, Præses.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Inverury, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Staates Long Morris, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Council-House of Inverury, November 28, 1775.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Inverury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverury, think it our Duty at this Time to approach the Throne, and humbly speak our Sentiments, on the present most alarming Crisis of Publick Affairs.

While under your Majesty we enjoyed all the Blessings of the best Government the Wisdom of Man ever devised, we have seen with Indignation the malignant Breath of disappointed Faction, by prostituting the sacred Sounds of Liberty, too successful in blowing the Sparks of a temporary Discontent into the Flames of a Rebellion in your Majesty's Colonies, that we from our Souls abhor.

This is now grown to such a daring and dangerous Height, that we doubt not the same paternal Tenderness that directed the lenient Measures, with which the first

In the Proſecution of which, to the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Majeſty's Councils, we doubt not will be joined the Hearts and Hands of all that love their Country, and that Sovereign who is ſo truly the Guardian of it's Conſtitution and Liberty.

May this beſt, this moſt abuſed of human Bleſſings, be long diſpenſed by your Majeſty, and late, very late, may You leave your Reign, the rare Example of a Prince, who loved, revered, and ſtrengthined, the Rights of His People.

Signed by Appointment,
Geo. Burnett, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Ancient Burrow of Jedburgh, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Jedburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of your ancient Burrow of Jedburgh, beg Leave, in the preſent important Conjuncture, to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's mild and equitable Reign; of your conſtant and tender Attention to the Happineſs and Honour of the Nation, and the religious and civil Liberties of your People.

Inſpired with a Love and Admiration of our Conſtitution, we cannot without Alarm hear Doctrines maintained ſubverſive of the Principles upon which it is eſtabliſhed; the Supreme Power of Parliament, the Baſis and Security of Britiſh Liberty, denied and oppoſed by a great Number of your American Subjects, who grown inſolent from Proſperity, and loſt to all Senſe of Juſtice and Gratitude, proceeding from Tumult to Rebellion, obſtinately perſevere in the raſh and deſperate Purpoſe of ſhaking off their Conſtitutional Dependance on the Mother Country.

We feel moſt ſenſibly for theſe of our American Brethren, whoſe Attachment to Order and Government continually ſubjects them to Violence and Outrage; we feel even for thoſe, who miſled from Duty by the inſidious Proteſtations of Loyalty and Patriotiſm, under which ambitious Men have been carrying on their intereſted Schemes, are likely to fall Victims to their unhappy Deluſion.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we view with the higheſt Indignation and Abhorrence, both their Principles and Deſigns; and that we are ready, to the utmoſt of our Power, to vindicate and ſupport the Intereſts of this Kingdom, and the Conſtitutional Dependance of all its Colonies.

We confide in the Juſtice and Wiſdom of your Majeſty and your Parliament, for the Meaſures proper to be purſued; and truſt, that, from a ſuitable Exertion of the Powers of Government, and the Wiſdom of your Councils, their daring Attempts ſhall not only be fruſtrated, but the unnatural Intention extinguiſhed, Unity reſtored, and a more permanent Tranquility ſecured.

That this deſireable Event may be ſpeedily and happily accompliſhed, and that your Majeſty may long reign in Peace and Proſperity over a happy and grateful People, is our ardent Wiſh and Prayer.

Sealed and ſigned, for and in our Name and by our Order and Authority, in Council aſſembled, this ſecond Day of December, 1775 by,
Andrew Lookup.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Cupar in Fife, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Council, and Incorporations of your Royal Burgh of Cupar, in Fife, beg Leave humbly to teſtify to your Majeſty our unſhaken Attachment to your Perſon, Family, and Government. That ſenſible of the many valuable Bleſſings we, with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, enjoy, under your mild, legal, and juſt Government, do, with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation, ſee an unnatural Rebellion broke out in your Majeſty's American Colonies, influenced by ſome reſtleſs and ſeditious Spirits among themſelves, and not a little fomented by a ſmall diſappointed Faction at Home; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that (with the almoſt univerſal Voice of your Majeſty's Britiſh Subjects) we will concur, with Heart and Hand, Life and Goods, in ſupporting your Majeſty in executing thoſe Meaſures You ſhall judge moſt effectual for reſtoring Peace, Liberty, and a due Dependance on your Majeſty and the Legiſlative Authority of this Empire, in the Britiſh American Colonies; where Rebellion, Tyrany, Oppreſſion, and Confuſion, do at preſent prevail.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by John Baxter, Provoſt.

Cupar, December 6, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir James Cockburn, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts filled with the moſt grateful Acknowledgements, for the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and Conſtitutional Government.

While we thankfully acknowledge theſe Bleſſings, it is with the utmoſt Abhorrence we obſerve a moſt unnatural Spirit of Diſaffection, which has for ſome Time paſt prevailed in ſeveral of your Majeſty's Colonies in America, and which has now broke out into a daring and open Rebellion; a Rebellion the more unjuſtifiable and ungrateful, as being raiſed againſt the Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Legiſlative Authority of Great-Britain, which has always been anxiouſly concerned, and careful to provide for their Safety and Security, even at the Expence of much Blood and Treaſure.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we and the whole Inhabitants of this Burgh whom we repreſent, are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport all ſuch Meaſures as your Majeſty and the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall judge neceſſary, to put a ſpeedy End to this unnatural Rebellion, which appears to us to have been greatly fomented and encouraged by the Machinations of a ſeditious and diſcontented Party at Home.

That Almighty God may bleſs your Majeſty's Councils, give Succeſs to your Arms; that a ſpeedy Reconciliation may take Place among all your Subjects, and that you may have a long and proſperous Reign over a free and happy People, is our ſincere Prayer.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of the Town-Council of Selkirk, this 21ſt Day of November, 1775 Years.
Thomas Currer, Chief Magiſtrate.

The Bishop of Rochester, Dean of the Order, in his Mantle, Chain, and Badge.

Then, by the Sovereign's Command, Lieutenant-General Irwine was introduced into the Presence by Sir Charles Thompson and Sir Ralph Payne, the two Junior Knights present, preceded by Francis Barker, Esq; Corporal of His Majesty's Yeomen of the Guard, officiating, with the Sovereign's Permission, as Gentleman Usher Daily Waiter, with Reverences as before.

The Sword of State was delivered by Sir Charles Frederick, the second Knight in Seniority; and Lieutenant-General Irwine, kneeling, was knighted therewith; then the Right Honourable Sir Jeffery Amherst, the Senior Knight, presented the Ribbon and Badge to the Sovereign; His Majesty put them over the new Knight's Right Shoulder; who being thus invested, and having kissed His Majesty's Hand, the Procession returned to the Privy Chamber in the above Order, Sir John Irwine, the new Knight, preceding the Knight Elect.

The Ceremony was performed in His Majesty's Closet, several Great Officers of the Court being present.

Secretary of State's Office, Whitehall, December 16.

BY the last Advices received from Quebec, of the 26th of October, it appears, that General Carleton, who was then at Montreal, had formed a considerable Corps of Canadians and English; that he, and Lieutenant-Colonel Macleane, who commanded another Corps on Sorel River, were preparing to proceed, by separate Routes, to the Relief of St. John's, which had been for some Time invested by the Rebels, without their being able to make any Impression upon it; and that there was the greatest Probability, that the Country would be soon cleared of those Invaders, whose Force was considerably diminished by Sickness and Desertion, and in great Want of necessary Supplies.

There are no Advices from Boston later than the 12th of October, when General Gage left it invested as before by the Rebel Army, which had however attempted nothing since the Affair of Bunker's Hill.

The Earl of Dunmore, Governor of Virginia, acquaints the Secretary of State, in a Letter dated the 22d of October, on Board the Ship William, off Norfolk, that on the 15th his Lordship had landed with a Party of between 70 and 80 Men in the Neighbourhood of the Town of Norfolk, and destroyed 17 Pieces of Ordnance, and brought off 2 more, which had been carried away from that Town by the Rebels, and concealed in the Country; that on the 17th he had landed again at about Eight Miles from the Town, and marched between Two and Three Miles into the Country, where about Two hundred Shirt Men were collected to oppose him, but who fled into the Woods upon the Appearance of the Party, leaving behind them some Small Arms and Ammunition, which his Lordship carried off; that on the 19th he had again landed, and destroyed Ten Guns, and brought off Six, at a Distance of Two Miles from the Coast; and on the 20th brought off Six more; and on the 21st, the Day before his Lordship's Letter is dated, he had landed again, and brought off Ten Guns, and Two Cohorns, and about Sixty Small Arms, and a great Quantity of Ball of different Sizes; and his Lordship imagines there are not any Military Stores remaining in the Possession of the Rebels in that Part of the Province. In these several Landings his Lordship made seven Prisoners, among whom is one Robinson, a Deputy to the Provincial Convention; and one Mathews, a Captain of the Minute Men.
